CTAN Quiz

Gerd Neugebauer

Abstract

The portal of the 'Comprehensive TEX Archive Network' (CTAN) contains a multitude of web pages. In this quiz some features and pages are described. As solution the associated url has to be completed and entered into the prepared boxes. The number of boxes can serve as an additional hint. Remember, a url may contain not only letters but also some other special characters.

You can understand this quiz as a chance to explore the depth of the CTAN portal. It can be fun to scan the pages in search of the described features.
